Claremorris Colts RFC Code of Conduct for Wales

As players, parents and coaches we have already signed up the Claremorris Colts RFC Code of Conduct on registration night. This Code will be in full effect in Wales along with the additional conditions below.

- There are 85 people travelling on Friday the 11th of April. We need to remember that we are representing Claremorris, Mayo, Connacht and Ireland as well as our families.
- The single biggest factor that will make this trip a success will be time keeping over the weekend
- All coaches, parents and players must respect the travelling schedule and the times within it.
- To help make this trip a huge success the following conditions are being added to the Claremorris Colts RFC Code of Conduct for the tour.

Travelling Times

Bus and boat departure times

Departure times for Bus to and from Festival of Rugby on Saturday and Sunday

Bus and boat times on the return trip to Claremorris

Rugby Game Day

Players and coaches must respect the timings in the playing schedule on both days

Claremorris RFC will not accept responsibility for any cost of travel outside the tour schedule as a result of a coach, parent or player missing the official transportation provided

Roll Calls and Curfews

All players must personally sign in for all roll calls and curfews

Parents wishing to take their kids off site must sign them in and out at the chalet of the group leader for that age group. Group leaders are Fergal Leonard (U12) & Pearse Hahessy (U15)

Personal Property

Claremorris Colts RFC will take no responsibility for any loss or damage to any personal property

Chalet

Please keep chalet tidy and clean, Claremorris Colts RFC will not accept any responsibility for damage caused to the chalet, whoever caused the damage pays for the damage.

I _____ understand and accept the above code of conduct for Claremorris Colts RFC trip to Wales, from the 11th to the 14th April 2014.
